Domestic Violence Board to Meet

The Michigan Domestic Violence Prevention and Treatment Board will meet Wednesday, December 5 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Kellogg Hotel and Conference Center on the Michigan State University campus on South Harrison Road in East Lansing.

The board is appointed by the governor to coordinate domestic violence services and is housed within the Family Independence Agency.

The December agenda includes treatment of staff; compensation and benefits; financial conditions; assurance of quality; and the contracting process. Discussion items include board job description; financial condition policy; emergency executive director succession policy; and the annual board planning cycle. An education and awareness session will be held during the afternoon.
